

'Bluetooth' Is Christian

A Curious Piece of Christian History

Reflections Reflections WhatsApp post, 14 December 2023

Surprised? This technology is all about connectivity. Though more sophisticated means of connecting devices have since been developed, the underlying principle remains unchanged. The Christian connection comes from Harald Bluetooth, a Danish king who converted his people to Christianity and united — or connected — the tribes of Denmark. The technology is named after him.