

Faith Beyond What We Cannot Comprehend

A Short Reflection on Faith and Mystery

Reflections Prayer, Repentance and the Spiritual Life

We cannot be frustrated when we fail to comprehend God's timing, His providence, and His divine mysteries. If all of these were revealed to humankind, there would not be so many different religions. Once this perspective is accepted, one must simply hold unwavering faith in God. Jesus said that faith need be no larger than a mustard seed. Hope and perseverance are both born out of faith. The choice is ours: whether we wish to have faith in God, or not.
