

Redemption for Both Man and Creation

A Reflection on Redemption and Creation

Reflections Grace, Sin and Transformation WhatsApp post, 29 December 2023

Christianity has always propagated the beauty, the precision, and God's Will in creation. When the man who was entrusted with everything turned away from God, he did not spare God's creation either, but went on to abuse it too. Redemption, therefore, is for both: the new creation is the restoration of the created order — the Kingdom of Jesus.

She acknowledged the existence of an indestructible soul, living on in eternity, yet mixed the theology a little to appeal to those who believe in re-birth.
