

The Powerhouse Celebration of Easter

A Reflection on the Resurrection of Jesus

Reflections The Passion, Cross and Resurrection WhatsApp post, 6 January 2024

Lent, Good Friday and Easter are all around the corner. Easter is the powerhouse celebration for Christians. But for the Resurrection of Jesus, there would have been no Christianity at all.

That, precisely, is the difference between Christianity and other religions. While the founders of other faiths lie dead in their graves, we believe in a living God.
