

Wanting to Play God

A Reflection on Humanity's Desire to Usurp God

Reflections Grace, Sin and Transformation WhatsApp post, 22 November 2023

It was the problem with Adam and Eve: they wanted to play God, resulting in the entry of sin, which stays with us even after billions of centuries. It remains very relevant in our own times. In government, in corporations, in homes and in churches, we want to play God. All will perish without realising that this is an impossible dream. There is only one God and Saviour: Jesus Christ.
